December 31, 2024

Dear Patient,

I am writing to let you know of my retirement from cardiology effective January 31, 2025.

I have enjoyed our professional and personal relationship and wish you continued health in the future. I will truly miss seeing you in my cardiology practice and caring for you.

Your medical records are confidential, and a copy can be transferred to another doctor or released to you or another person you designate only through your permission. If you plan to continue with this office, you can sign an authorization to transfer your records to Dr. Aggarwal or Dr. Velasco. If you choose to see a different physician, please contact us and sign a transfer of records to your new doctor. Until you decide, your records for the last year will be at Texas Heart Center. Your records from the previous office, Cardiology Consultants of Texas are still in their system in the electronics Epic system.

My hope is that you have a seamless transition to your next cardiologist and a long healthy life.

Sincerely,
